

JUNIOR DOG STUDY GUIDE 2018

Q1.

What are warm-blooded vertebrates called whose young feed on milk produced by their mother's mammary glands?

A. Mammals Pg 13

Q2.

Name three of the seven AKC Groups:

A. Sporting, Non Sporting, Working, Herding, Hound, Terrier, Toy- Pg 17 - 22

Q3.

What type of eye shape does the Cocker Spaniel have?

A. Round eye Pg 24

Q4.

What type of scissors would be best to use in trimming excess hair from a dog's pads?

A. Blunt ended scissors Pg 34

Q5.

What is the most important nutrient you can provide to your dog?

A. Water Pg 157

Q6.

What is the term called when you pose your dog in the show ring without using your hands?

A. Free Stacking Pg 103

Q7.

How many chromosomes does a dog have?

A. 78 Pg 13

Q8.

What should you have control of before stacking your dog for the judge?

The head Pg101

Q9.

What is the name of the work that affects the dog's heart?

A. Heartworms Pg146

Q10.

Name the AKC Dog Group whose breeds were developed to dig out small animals chased underground by tracking hounds.

A. Terriers Pg 19

Q, 11.

What is a dog's normal temperature? – Pg 154

Temperature 100.5 – 102.5

Q. 12

What is one sign of a healthy dog? – Pg. 140

His/her have pink gums and tongue.

Q. 13

What is the name of the sport that follows a course from one sign to the next, with the handler and dog performing the skill listed on each sign?

Rally Pg. 95-96

Q. 14

When training your dog, what should you give your dog for rewarding good behavior?

Treats – Pg. 70

Q. 15-20 – Glossary – Pg 171 – 176

Beard – Tuft of hair under the jaw or chin

Bite – The way in which the top and bottom teeth meet when a dog closes his mouth.

Leather – The ear flap

Ring Tail – A tail that curls in a circle.

Sire – Father of a litter of puppies

JUNIORS SHOULD ALSO STUDY THE BODY PARTS OF THE DOG LOCATED ON PAGE 129