Project Tips:

- Completed Global Citizenship e-record and unit specific materials in a secure binder.
- In your manual identify the Life Skills you developed and how you developed them. The skills are located on pages 2 and 3 in project manual.
- Study of a Country Unit 1:
 - Select one of the four options on page 3 of the manual.
 - Include your study options chosen from pages 7-9.
 - Include in your study of the country what you learned about the country.
 - What your attitude was before and after you studied the country.
 - How you shared this information with others (not just family) like; 4-H club, friends, at school, etc.
 - List the resources you used in your project.
- Hosting an Exchange Delegate Unit 2
 - Contact the State 4-H Office and see how you and your family can host an incoming delegate from another country or culture or host an exchange student from your school.
 - Include how your prepared for your exchange delegate's arrival
 - Include what your attitude was before and after meeting the exchange delegate
 - Include how you welcomed your exchange delegate into your family--what special events did you go to and how did you communicate with your delegate.
 - Include what your attitude was before the visit and after the visit --How did you change?
 - How did you share this information with others (not just family) like; 4-H club, friends, at school, etc.
 - List the resources you used in your project
 - Organize your notebook according to the section in the manual
