GENERAL HORSE JUDGING RULES AND REGULATIONS

TEAMS: Each team shall consist of at least three members. If four members are designated, the high three scores in each division (halter, performance, reasons and overall) shall constitute the team's score for that division. If there are only three members on a team, all scores will be used. All contestants will be eligible for individual awards.

While the contest is in progress, there will be no conferring between contestants or between a contestant and anyone else except as directed by the contest superintendent or his representatives. Questions that do not pertain to the placing of the class shall be directed to the designated group leader only. Failure to abide by this rule shall constitute disqualification from the contest.

Members of past state championship teams may judge at this contest as individuals only.

TIME: For halter classes, a period of fifteen minutes will be allowed for placing of the classes, during which contestants will be shown the following: profile, front view, rear view, travel and close inspection.

CARD PLACINGS: Each contestant shall turn in his or her placing on an official placing card at the conclusion of the time limit. Once a card has been turned in to the group leader, it will not be returned for any reason. Failure to turn in a card, turning in a blank card or a double marked card shall result in a score of 0 for that class.

ORAL REASONS: A minimum of three (3) sets (with a possibility of four (4) sets) of oral reasons will be given by Senior Division 4--H;; a minimum of (2) sets (possibly 3 with two to count) of oral reasons will be given by Junior Division 4--H contestants. Reason classes will be announced to all contestants following the judging of the Halter and Performance class. Reasons will not be timed. No printed materials or communications devices are allowed in the reasons room (i.e. judging manuals or cell phones).

OFFICIAL JUDGES: Minimum of three officials with prior judging contest experiences will be utilized to officiate the contest. A moderator will be used to compile a composite placing and suggest cuts. Classes will be officiated in accordance with the rules of the American Quarter Horse Association or USEF as appropriate, except that all halter horses will be judged as sound and all tack and attire will be considered legal in performance classes, providing it is used correctly. Performance classes will be judged as they go.

DIVISIONS: There will be junior and senior divisions with no limit on the number of participants. Juniors, ages 8--13;; Seniors, ages 14--18. As of January 1st CLASSES: There will be a minimum of 3 halter classes and 5 performance classes up to a maximum of 10 total classes. Possible breeds include Appaloosas, Arabians, Morgans, Paints, Quarter Horses, Saddlebreds Draft Horses and Miniatures. The performance classes may include Western Pleasure, Hunter Under Saddle, Western Riding, Reining, Hunter Hack, Western Horsemanship, English Equitation, Saddle Seat Equitation or Trail.
