

Colorado 4-H Shooting Sports Ambassador Program Expectations

As a Colorado 4-H Shooting Sports Ambassador, you will be representing over 82,000 4-H youth and alumni from across Colorado. Remember, you never get a second chance to make a good first impression. As an Ambassador you will be meeting with potential donors who are CEO's of companies, University Administrators and others that support the Colorado 4-H program. The way you present yourself, talk and act are very important when you are serving as an Ambassador.

- You will be expected to be on time, so plan to be early to any event.
- You are to respond promptly to any emails or phone calls from the State 4-H Program Director, State 4-H Shooting Sports Specialist or Advisors.
- Ambassadors serve at the request of the Colorado 4-H Program at the direction of the Colorado State 4-H Program Director and the Colorado State 4-H Shooting Sports Specialist and can be relieved from State 4-H Shooting Sports Ambassador duties and privileges for misconduct or not following the rules.

If selected as a Colorado 4-H Shooting Sports Ambassador you will:

Provide leadership as active youth members of the Colorado State 4-H Shooting Sports Advisory Committee.

Serve as a positive role model, what you say and do reflects on the entire 4-H Program.

Give demonstrations, provide public speeches, work with the State 4-H Shooting Sports team at State 4-H Shooting Sports Leader Trainings, assist with your county and state 4-H contests, meet new people, develop contacts, develop leadership skills & serve your community.

Instill ethics, sportsmanship, and responsibility in all 4-H programs and activities.

Develop leadership skills.

Promote the safe, responsible handling and storage of firearms and archery equipment.

Expand Colorado 4-H membership and participation in 4-H Shooting Sports.

Always be courteous and respectful of others.

Set a good example.

Be inclusive, positive, encouraging and welcoming of all 4-H members regardless of their Shooting Sports knowledge, skills and abilities.

Conduct yourself in a professional and ethical manner.

Adhere to State and National 4-H guidelines & be technologically competent.
