Method of Conduct

1. The subject matter must pertain to the horse industry. A presentation not appropriately related to the horse industry can be disqualified at the discretion of the judges.
2. Presentations delivered by the 4-Her should be original and constructed by them. Any form of plagiarism is strictly prohibited. Plagiarism can include, but is not limited to: copying parts of a presentation previously presented by another youth or individual; using text, phrases, photos or diagrams from an article, video, book, movie or other published work without giving credit to the author. Competitor's resource citation should be specific, accurate and honest. If contest officials confirm plagiarism, the contestant will automatically be placed last, with a notation on the scorecard to reflect such infraction.
3. The presentation may be a demonstration or illustrated talk. All references to the term "presentation" in these rules include either a demonstration or an illustrated talk. A demonstration is defined as a presentation of a step-by-step procedure with an end product or result. An illustrated talk is defined as a presentation of an idea or topic that uses visual aids to convey the message.
Both presentation forms are acceptable and will be evaluated equally, although the delivery methods are different as defined above. Both should utilize visual aids to help convey the major points of the presentation and more than one type of visual aid is preferable. Visual aids may include, but are not limited to: handouts, poster, props, videos, slides, and computer-generated media. No live animals may be used.
4. Contestants may use notes. However, excessive use of notes may be counted against the contestant. This will be at the discretion of the judge(s).
5. A public address system will NOT be used during the contest.
6. Creative audiovisual aids may be used, but the contestant must be involved in the making or designing them.
7. During the competition, the contestants may introduce themselves by name, state and presentation topic.
8. Presentations should be 9-12 minutes in length. Three points will be deducted from the total score on each judge's score sheet for every minute (or fraction of a minute) under 9 minutes or over 12 minutes. After the individual has been introduced by the superintendent, the time will start once the contestant begins to speak.
9. Participants must supply their own props. Two tables and chairs will be provided for the presenter's use.
10. Contestants should cite their major reference materials at the end of the presentation. This time will not be counted in the allotted time.

13. Only the judge(s) may ask questions of the contestant. Question time will not be counted in the allotted time. Contestants should repeat the question, and then answer it.
14. No coaching from parents or coaches during the presentation.
15. Once the presentation has started, presenter(s) may not receive assistance from any coach, parent, audience member, or other person, which includes, but is not limited to, the stroking of any key on a computer or other audiovisual device. The penalty for violating this rule is disqualification.
16. Contestant order will be determined by a random drawing and announced at the coach's meeting.
17. No videoing or photographing of presentations is allowed during the contest.
18. Improper attire will be a violation and appropriate points will be deducted on the score card. Improper attire will be determined at the discretion of the judges. Business attire or dress appropriate to the speech is acceptable.
19. Two to three judges will be used and judges will score each entry independently and assign scores. After all presentations are presented and scores are tabulated, judges may confer and discuss evaluations. Each judge assigns his or her final scores and then the cumulative final scores are tabulated to determine the final placings. Contest superintendent(s) may review and check tabulation of scores for mathematical accuracy.
20. All multimedia and PowerPoint presentations must be provided via e-mail or on a USB drive to the contest superintendent at the Coach's Meeting the night before the contest. All audiovisual needs, including computer, projector, clicker, HDMI cable, and screen, are provided. Any other equipment needs must be made through special arrangements with superintendents at a minimum of thirty (30) days in advance. Management will not be responsible for the failure of A/V equipment to operate properly. Any multimedia presentations must be playable on the provided PC equipment, which is equipped with Microsoft Office and the internet. No other programs will be available for download.
21. There will be a coaches meeting; check the website for times and location.
22. The judge's scores are final; however, ties will be broken by the following order:
 - 1) judges' accumulated delivery score
 - 2) by the judges' accumulated organization score
 - 3) on the contest and accuracy scores.
